

ROSTAING GLOVES

Rostaing has remained in family ownership since 1789. The Rostaing's know-how has been transmitted from father to son. With a presence in five continents, Rostaing is a global leader in the protective glove market. Only a handful of glove manufacturers master all the technologies associated with design, engineering, and production, and Rostaing is one of them.

Thanks to two centuries of manufacturing experience, Rostaing gloves offer optimal degrees of comfort and safety. The expert selection of raw materials and quality control at all stages of production enable certification of each glove as being of 100% Rostaing quality.

COMFORT & DURABILITY

Rostaing gloves are available in many different natural materials like cowhide, calfskin, lambskin, and 100% cotton.

STYLISH & COLORFUL

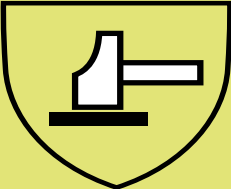

Available in a wide array of colors and styles, for men, women, and children.

GREAT FIT

Rostaing gloves are sized to fit. It's not your typical Small, Medium, and Large sizes.

SAFETY RATINGS

Rostaing gloves are labeled with a safety rating that follows the guidelines below. This will assist you and your customers in matching gloves to varying gardening tasks.
